

News Release

GCA's Lori Traweek and Lynda Norton honored by TCEQ and Governor Abbott

HOUSTON, May 16, 2018 -- Gulf Coast Authority (GCA) CEO Lori Traweek and Executive Assistant Lynda Norton received a Texas Environmental Excellence Award on behalf of GCA and the Texas Conservation Fund (TCF). TCF manages Trash Bash, the largest coordinated annual lake and river cleanup in Texas. Traweek also serves as president and Lynda Norton serves as the Treasurer of TCF. GCA coordinates two of the 14 cleanup sites and also administers the TCEQ approved Supplemental Environmental Project fund for Trash Bash. Traweek and Norton have helped manage Trash Bash for 25 years at several sites in the Houston - Galveston area.

For more information, visit www.trashbash.org or call (281) 486-9500.

Gulf Coast Authority (GCA) CEO Lori Traweek, front row right, and GCA Executive Assistant Lynda Norton, front row left, sit with Texas Gov. Greg Abbott and the TCEQ Commissioners (L to R) Toby Baker, Chairman Bryan Shaw, and John Neirmann. GCA and the Texas Conservation Fund were recently recognized with an award for their work on Trash Bash.